

Los Altos Village Association

Business Membership Application

Since 1963, the Los Altos Village Association has been the premier merchants' organization serving the downtown Los Altos business community. With primary goals of promoting downtown businesses and increasing foot traffic, we support downtown businesses and the community through downtown events, beautification programs, and more. Merchants are encouraged to become active members of the Los Altos Village Association so that together we can work towards strengthening and growing the downtown community for generations to come. Join today!
